

Children & Family Resource Center

ONCE UPON A TIME READING PROGRAM VOLUNTEERS

Duties Include:

Volunteers will spend time reading and conducting a literacy learning activity one-on-one and/or with small groups of children in childcare programs, preschool programs and after-school programs.

Qualifications:

Good communication skills, ability to read out loud and relate to children in a friendly and helpful manner

High School Diploma

Requires TB Testing

May Require Finger Print check and/or criminal record clearance

Multilingual (English/Spanish) helpful but not necessary

The Center will conduct a comprehensive Reading Aloud and Literacy Program Activity training program prior to Volunteers being assigned program responsibilities.

Time Commitment:

Flexible hours; depending on the program and location

Supervision:

Volunteer Coordinator

Benefits:

Making a contribution to the literacy development of children and being part of a Team that is committed to making a positive difference in the community.